"You're the TOP
You're the Coliseum
You're the TOP
You're the Louvre Museum
You're the melody from a symphony by Strauss
You're a Bendel bonnet, a Shakespeare sonnet, a Mickey Mouse
You're the Nile
You're the Tower of Pisa
You're the smile on the Mona Lisa
I'm a worthless check, a total wreck a flop
But if baby, I'm the bottom, you're the TOP
You're the TOP
You're Mahatma Ghandi
You're the TOP
You're Napoleon Brandy
You're the purple light of a summer night in Spain
You're the National Galley, you're Garbo's salary, you're cellophane
You're subline
You're a turkey dinner
You're the time on the Derby winner
I'm a toy balloon that is fated soon to pop
But if baby, I'm the bottom. you're the TOP
You're the TOP
You're a Waldorf Salad
You're the TOP.
You're a Berlin ballad
You're the nimble tread of the feet of Fred Astaire
You're an O'Neill drama, you're Whisler's mama, you're Camenbert
You're a zose
You're Inferno's Dante
You're the nose on the great Durante
I'm a lazy lout who is just about to stop
But if, baby, I'm the bottom, you're the TOP.

There'll be crocuses to bring to school tomorrow.

SEXISM AT SUMMIT HIGH?

by Fred Johnson and Gigi Reynolds

Last spring, there appeared to be much enthusiasm over the appointment of Laura Wanco (formerly Menza) as the year's Men's Tennis Team coach. Special attention was paid to the fact that Summit High had a woman coaching the men's team, as was evidenced by the full page feature on Ms. Wanco in the Newark Star–Ledger, as well as an article in the New York Times. Her first season closed with an eleven wins, three losses Suburban Conference record. Pleased with her success, she had no reason to believe that she would not be returning as coach of the 1973-'74 Men's Tennis Team.

Last summer, while [illegible] for a position teaching English, Mr. Joseph Della Badia noted in his [illegible] that his background [illegible] activities. As a matter of procedure, Mr. Della Badia referred Mr. Stein to Howard Anderson, head of the Athletic Department. While Mr. Anderson was interviewing Mr. Stein, she inquired and was eventually told that the [illegible] Because of this change from men's tennis to women's tennis, Ms. Wanco would be receiving a salary less than half of what she had previously received.

Why the dramatic difference in pay? Why wasn't Ms. Wanco re-hired as men's tennis coach?

The men's tennis team has a season running approximately three months in length during the Spring of the year. The women's tennis team has a season running approximately two months in length during the Fall of the year. Before the opening of school, the Suburban year. As for the actual amount of money any coach is paid, this figure is "recommended" to the Board of Education by the Athletic Director. The Board has the option of approving this figure, or disapproving.

Why Mr. Stein instead of Ms. Wanco? Mr. Anderson answered this question by saying, "His tennis background and knowledge make him a better coach; he has played more tennis."

Both Mr. Stein and Ms. Wanco have coached a men's tennis team exactly once. Both Mr. Stein and Ms. Wanco have taught tennis to other people privately. Both Mr. Stein and Ms. Wanco have had considerable experience at playing the game. Their qualifications apparently being exactly equal, we asked Mr. Anderson once more to explain why he felt Stein to be the superior coach. He replied, "He is more qualified. Period."

What were Mr. Anderson's [illegible] about the ideal coach? [illegible]ated that he felt [illegible]ence, background, [illegible]dge of the game, and to [illegible] same sex as the team [illegible]rs you are coaching [illegible]nt as qualifications for

[illegible]e (Laura) did a real fine

> [illegible]o's replacement, and her [illegible] on the fact that she is a [illegible] us last year, but now we [illegible]man who we think will be [illegible]ne coach."

[illegible]. Anderson continued to [illegible]t "a man should coach [illegible]or two reasons: (1) in the [illegible]f accident or injury, and [illegible]man is able to enter the [illegible] room in case of [illegible]ncy or sudden need.

[illegible] man can motivate men [illegible] than a woman could [illegible]: they are thinking alike [illegible]ow what would appeal as [illegible]motivation is concerned."

Both Mr. Anderson and Ms. [illegible]anco have stated that they [illegible]ceived absolutely no complaints about her previous coaching. Mr. Stein appears to be no more qualified than the coach whom he is to replace. As for the pay scale, the women's tennis season is a month shorter than the men's season because there was no room for them in the Spring, and they had to be moved to the Fall. Because the weather gets too cold to play anymore in November, the women have to quit around the end of October.

In summary, the only viable reason for Ms. Wanco's replacement, and her subsequent drop in pay seems to rest solely on the fact that she is a woman. Can it be attributed to her that the women's season was relocated, causing a shorter period of actual practice and competition? Should she be penalized because of some other people's belief that only men can motivate men? Should she be squeezed out of a position because it would be inappropriate for her to enter the men's locker room, which is not by any means a necessity for the coaching of tennis anyway?

Federal Law 10:05–12A states that "It shall be an unlawful employment practice, or, as the case may be, an unlawful discrimination: for an employer, because of the race, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, age, marital status or sex of any individual to refuse to hire or employ or to bar or to discharge from employment such individual or to discriminate against such individual in compensation or in terms, conditions or privileges or employment; provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to bar an employer from refusing to accept for employment any person on the basis of sex in those certain circumstances where sex is a bona fide occupational qualification reasonably necessary to the normal operation of the particular business or enterprise."

Is sex a bona fide occupational necessity for coaching tennis? Is a male tennis coach "necessary for the normal operation of this particular enterprise?" Is there sexism at Summit High?

This year has been so unique in my life that it's going to be remembered always as such. It's been a year marked with all sorts of challenges, loneliness in the first few months, and lots of fun.

The Hart family and the entire Summit AFS chapter deserve a big pat on the shoulders, for making my stay here enjoyable. Here I was in Summit, New Jersey, a stranger fresh from a Ghanian boarding school life. I met a lot of people in the summer but was lonesome even at parties where there were lots of people around. "Kids belong to cliques", I was told.

The beginning of the academic year saw me in Summit High, the cradle of my American experience. I had selected courses for the year at the Guidance Office a few days earlier, where instead of a two-year finale to three years of study, I found many one year and one semester courses. From the strict final exam bound school characterized by vigorous routine terminal exams of the Ghanian Educational system, I plunged into a more relaxed system where tests, at least in the Ghanian context, are unheard of! A school where students changed rooms after every class instead of teachers and where students do not stand when a teacher enters the classroom and do not address teachers "Sir" nor students in higher classes with any difference than their own classmates.

Summit High kids, I found to be both warm and cold, friendly and unfriendly. Walking through the halls, "Hi" was a thousand for a penny and I never heard my name called in so many different ways! Kafi, Coffee, and Korfi to mention a few ways. Yet in spite of all this warmth, I found it very hard to make any close friends! It was fun playing soccer with the Varsity squad not to mention the "Wind Club" and the wind guys and the wind games and the wind goals and air talk in the locker room. The jokes cracked about Africa and Africans were sometimes fun to listen to. "Hey! Did you ever eat ice cream in Africa? Do you have barbers in Ghana? Do you live in houses? Did you have a spear? Did you wear clothes before you came here?" All these are but a few of the numerous questions I had to take which were so amusing yet so patience challenging. Don't get mad, Kofi, I was told, even though they'll ask you the same questions over and over. And that was true because I met people all over who knew very little about Africa and Africans, and most of whose ideas had been picked up from Tarzan movies!

I have had the chance to see other places and schools and meet other kids. The AFS weekends and the fun I had at them and all the excitement will be in my memory forever! It was exhilarating to be in the Empire State, fun in the crown of the Statue of Liberty and all those places in New York still give me good memories.

As I go through the last stages of my stay, I make more friends, and this years' experience is going to be one long chapter in my life. It's been a year of change and mind-broadening, and that is why Summit has been imprinted in my memory. To me AFS and Summit go together and all the fun I've had. The year hasn't ended yet and I know there's more fun to come. To the people who made the year such a success and to Summit High I say Bravo.

You could always find the new A.F.S. student from Argentina in a crowd. She's the one with the strawberry ice cream cone in one hand and a dictionary in the other hand.

I was so nervous when I first came to America because I knew that to speak English perfectly was going to be a frustrating challenge. With the help and patience of all my friends and teachrs, I found it easier to learn not with my dictionary but instead with a feeling of confidence that everyone would help me. But I don't have to speak English perfectly to realize and appreciate that the Runyon family was terrific. I love my American family from the bottom of my heart. They have done so much for me. All the warmth and kindness that they have given me could not be put into words.

Time has gone too fast. Soon I will be gone with only past memories or my wonderful experience. I'm going to return someday in the future. I would not want to have to rely on all my pictures to replay my experience. I want to be part of it all.

Thank-you everyone for making everything so much that is was.

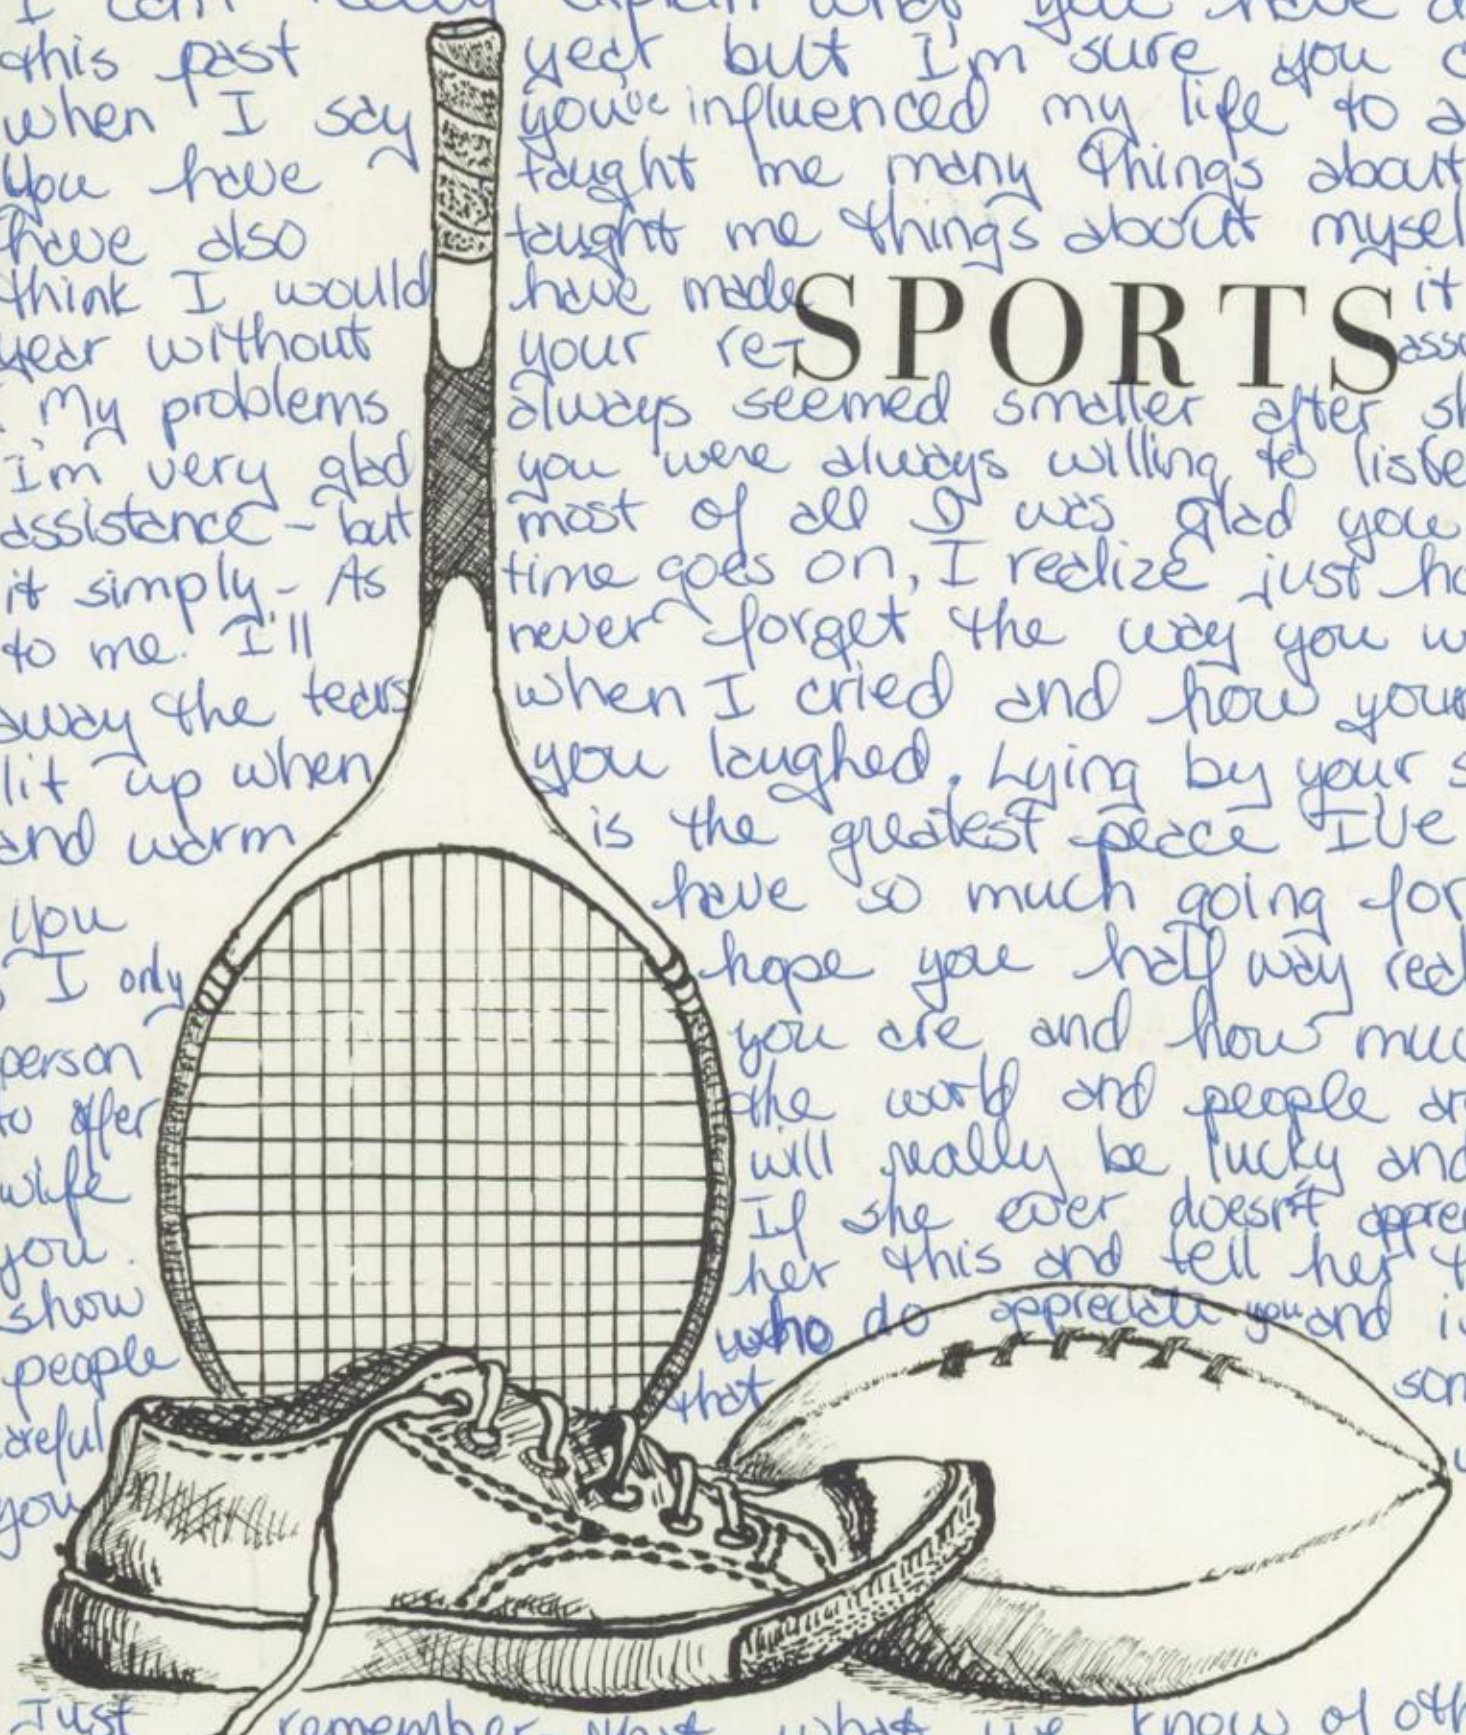
Its hard to find the right words for someone who has been so special and who has meant so much to me in high school. Its appropriate that I'm writing on this sports page since if it weren't for track we would never have gotten together, but believe me I'm glad we did. I can't really explain what you have done for me this past year but I'm sure you can understand when I say you've influenced my life to a great extent. You have taught me many things about people and don't have also taught me things about myself. I think this confidence I would have made it thru this year without your reassurance and with you. My problems always seemed smaller after sharing them and offer you were always willing to listen and I'm very glad most of all I was glad you were there. To put assistance - but time goes on, I realize just how much you mean it simply - As never forget the way you were able to kiss to me. I'll when I cried and how your face lit up when you laughed. Lying by your side feeling and warm is the greatest peace I've ever you have so much going for , I only hope you half way realize you the person are and how much good to offer the world and people around you. wife will really be lucky and fortunate you. If she ever doesn't appreciate you, show her this and tell her that there's people who do appreciate you and if she's careful that someone will you up.



SPORTS

Just remember - that what we know of other people the memory of the moments during which we knew them. So dream of our shared precious moments together - I won't any, I'd rather you remember what you want to remember.

Of course we had ups and downs just like everyone - but don't tell me, I know - we're unique, we're special.

I've got to go to Wheaton College now and meet some new friends that I don't know - so its goodbye - I'm sorry to be leaving you but its really goodbye (as if you didn't know). I wish you could tell me if our ~~love~~ love would be the same if we were always together - forever. If the →

SUBURBAN CONFERENCE CHAMPS

FOOTBALL

The 1973 football team continued Summit's dominence of the Suburban Conference by trouncing nine opponents and leaving in its wake a record unparalleled in the school's history. With a string of 18 consecutive victories and 6 consecutive Conference Championships, it is little wonder why they were named the area's Number One Team by the four local newspapers. An offense that scored 266 points and a defense that gained 5 shutouts combined to make 3 touchdowns the closest margin in a Conference game. The entire student body as well as the team can boast of their accomplishments and the seniors point with pride to a 25-1-1 three-year record.

Though it is not considered Summit's biggest spectator sport, the Cross Country Team would like to inform you that we are keeping up with the winning image that is a tradition of Summit Teams. Summit finished the season with a very impressive record of ten wins and four near wins in the Suburban Conference, and a fourteen and four overall record.

FIELD HOCKEY

The Girls Field Hockey team can take pride in their 1973-74 record. Faced with a difficult schedule, they devoted many hours on the field, improving their team effort with each game. Of the team's final four games, two were won and two were tied. We are all looking forward to a successful Field Hockey season next year.

CONTE

The 1973-1974 Hilltoppers after starting slowly rolled to a 21-5 season. This included winning their third straight Suburban Conference championship. They also went to the North Jersey Group III sectional finals for the second straight year, before being eliminated in the state tournament.

Willie Wilson became Summit's first 1000 point scorer in history during the season, Tony Zachery, George Gross, and John Foushee, the other starting seniors made large contributions over the long season.

Tim Mahoney and Ernie Gwathney were two seniors coming off the bench to help out. Rob't. Kimbrough a soph was the 5th starter, and David Poole also a soph a valuable starter.

All in all it was a great three years of basketball for the class of '74. They compiled an overall 67-9 won and lost record and three successive conference championships.

WRESTLING

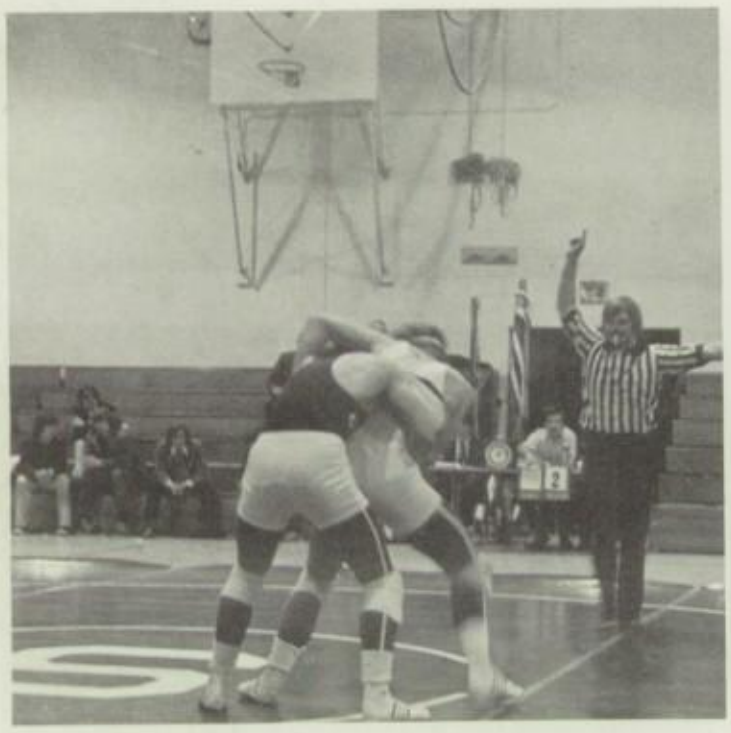
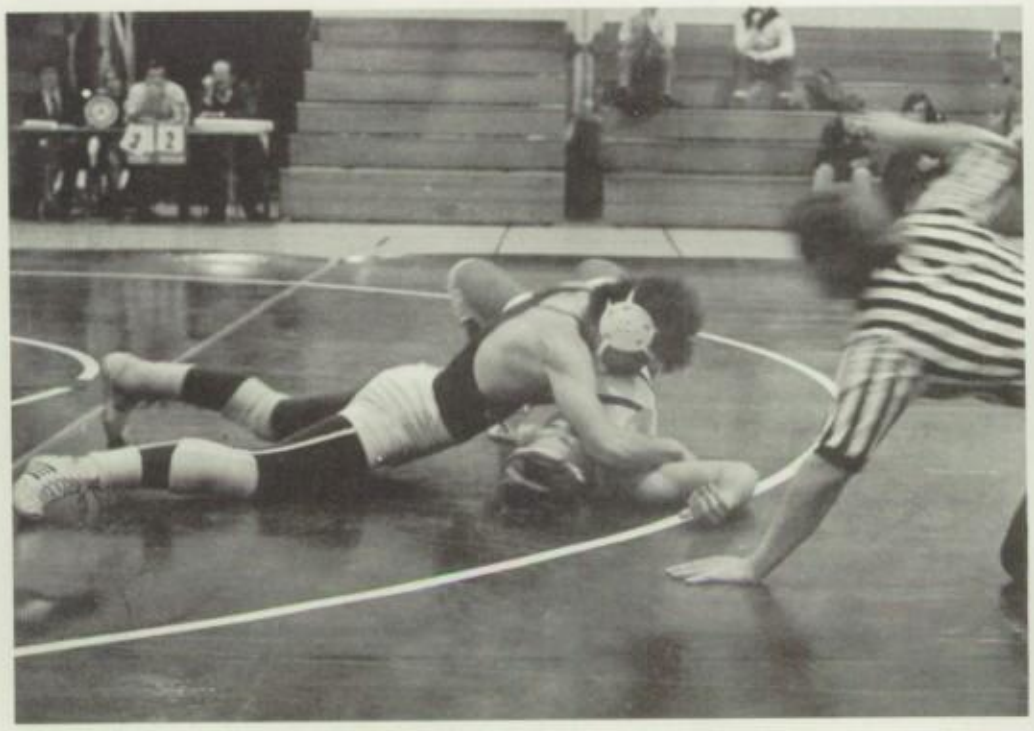
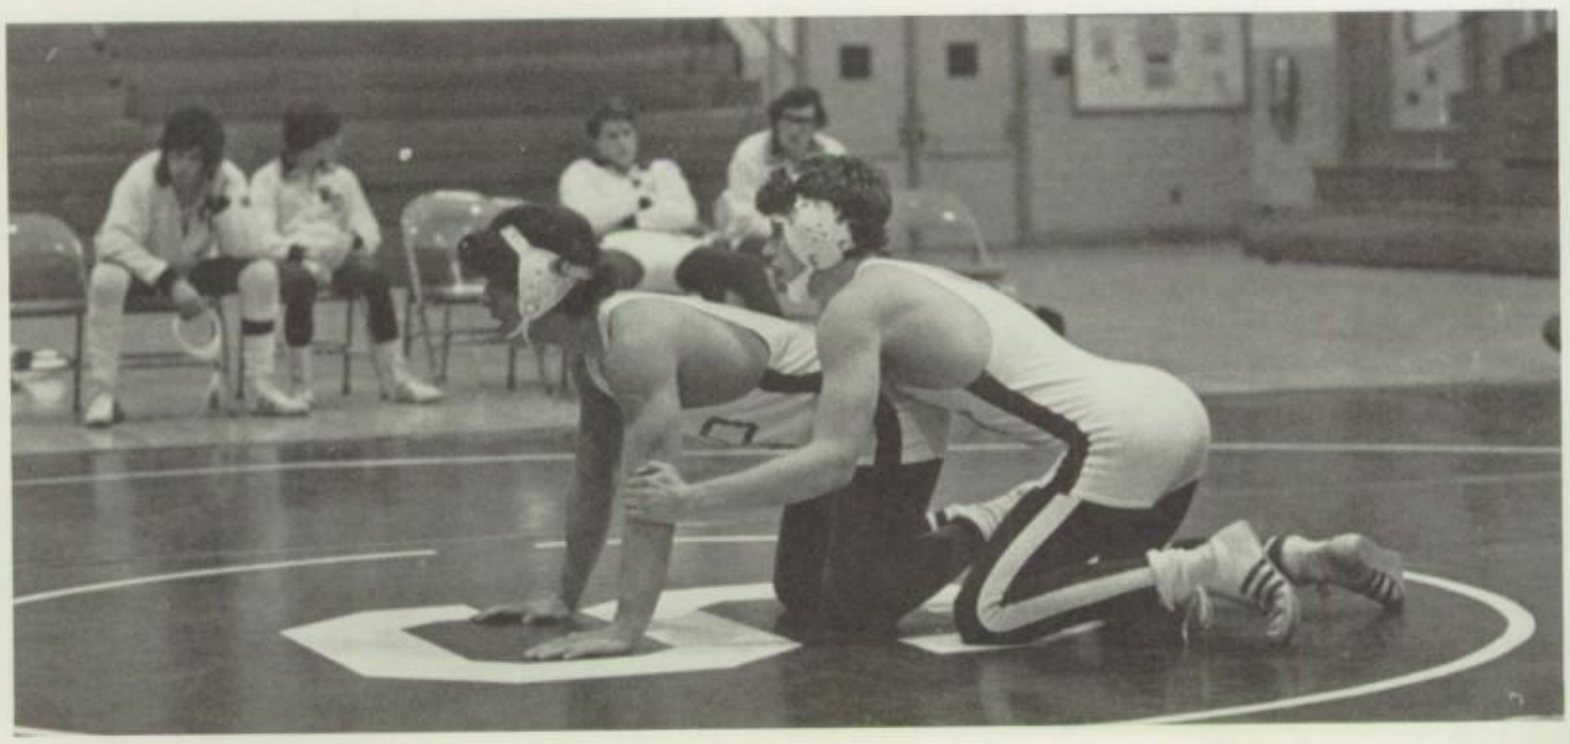
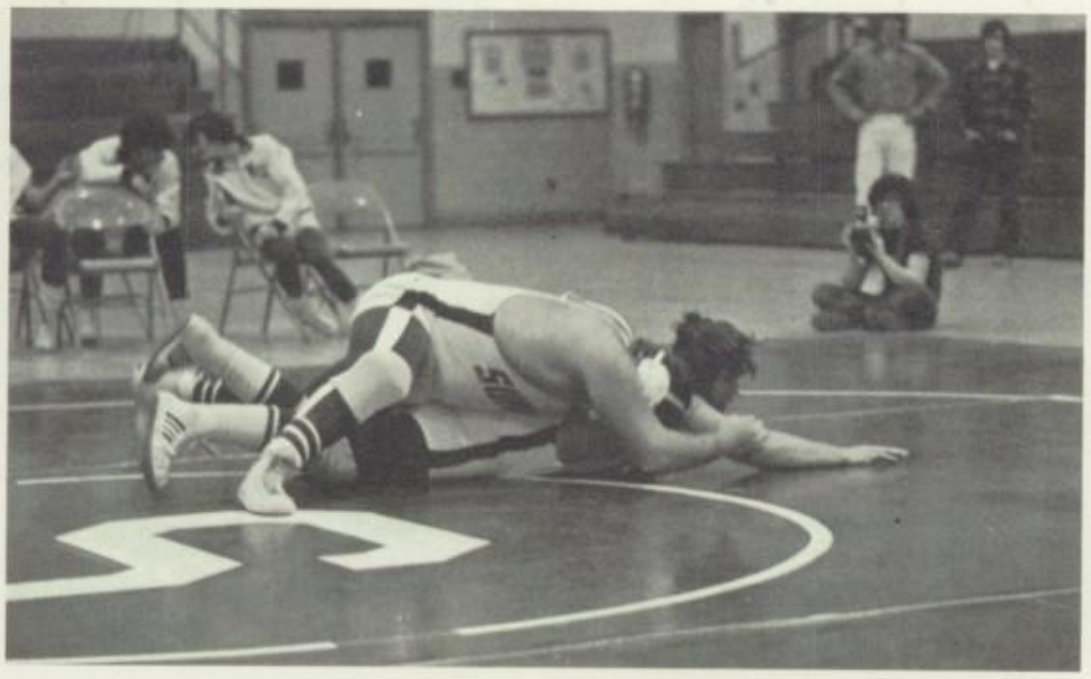
After facing tough opposition all season, Coach Tom Washburn's wrestlers finished off the season with a 4-8 record. When they did win, they won by such decisive scores as 50-0 over Springfield, 48-9 over West Orange, 36-20 over Caldwell, and 37-13 over Linden.

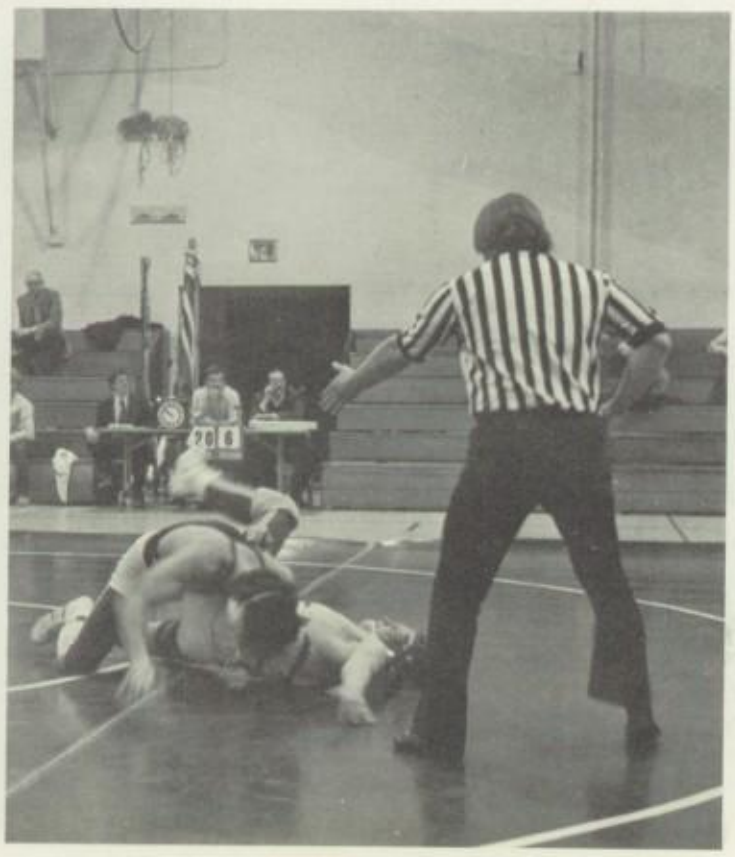
Several wrestlers were outstanding throughout the season, displaying dedication, enthusiasm, the desire to win, and inspiration to the rest of the team. Jim Watson, cocaptain, 7-4, made it to the District Finals. The Gregory brothers each sported 9-2-0 records, with Sam scoring 6 pins, and Bob scoring 4. Sam suffered an injury to his knee during the final matches and could not participate in the Districts. Bob made up for the loss by getting to the finals in the Districts, and taking a 3rd in the Regionals.











GIRLS' SWIMMING

The girls' swim team had a very frustrating, yet rewarding season. Although there were 50 girls in the pool the first day, the team was eventually narrowed down to 26 dedicated girls.

We were always able to rely on Molly Mason and Anne Paulson, who took first and second in almost every meet in the 50 Butterfly, and Kathy Keating and Anne Paulson, who brought in more points in the 100 I.M. The medley relay team took first place in five of our seven meets. Joan Paulson set a new team record in the 200 yd. Freestyle. Out of 26 girls, 15 qualified for the state meet in Lawrenceville.

Above all, the team could not have done as well as we did without the dedication, the spirit, and the pep talks given to us by Mrs. Smitko and the captains, Leigh Lanning and Nancy Hittinger.

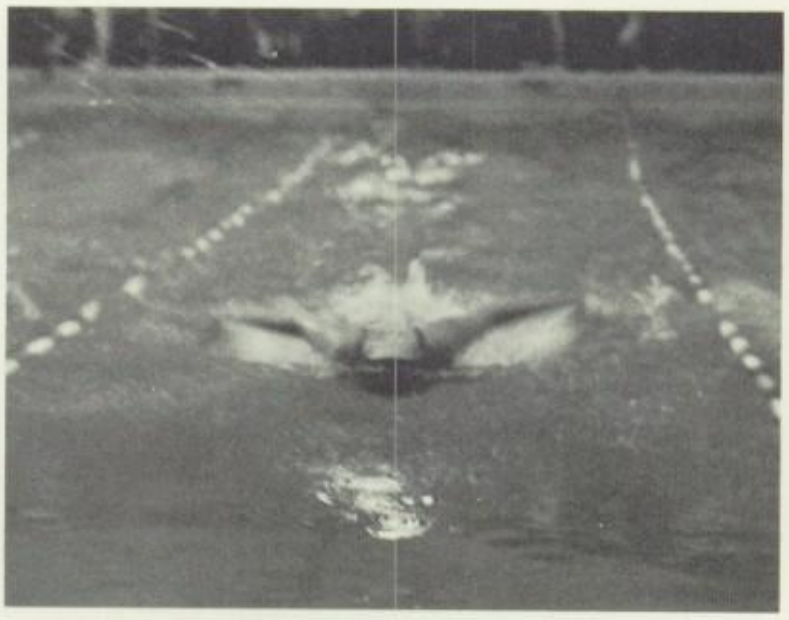
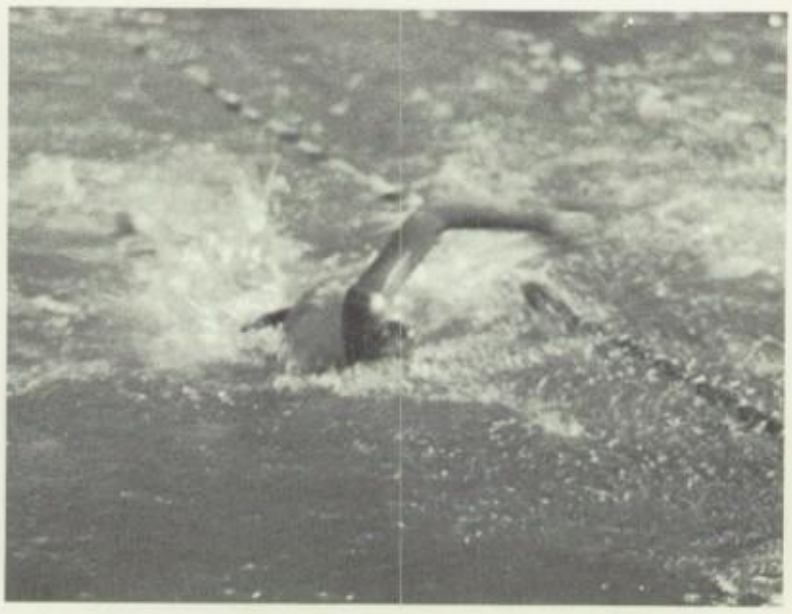
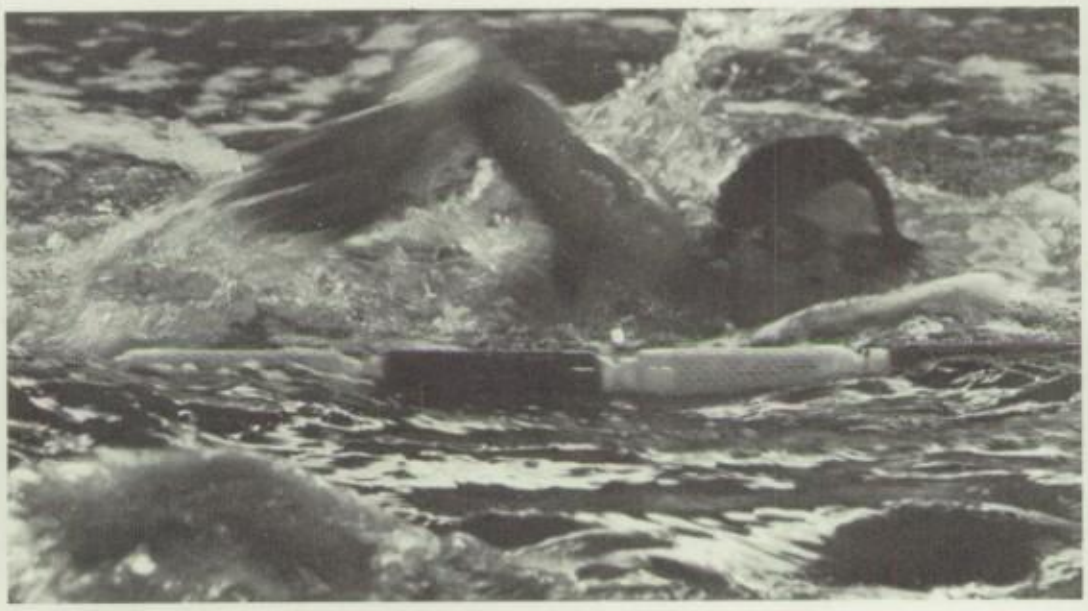
It was nice to write on this page because it's my last page.
It's been great knowing ya, and having you in class. Good luck to you in good old J.D. See ya next year. Love, Lisa





BOYS' SWIMMING

Row 1: J. Coward, T. Hermann, D. Schnert, S. Whitely. Row 2: M. Hermann, M. Connel, P. Hayes, A. Martzloff, F. DeSilva. Row 3: B. Specht, J. Lyle, H. Anderson, Mr. Stokes.



The 1973-74 Men's Varsity swim season was marked by both individual and team successes. Competitive swimming, being a very individual sport, like track, is a series of individual victories culminating in the success of the team as a whole. It is the individual swimmer's dedication to personal excellence, therefore, that will make a successful swim season.

Every swimmer bettered his own "best" time this season. Three team records were broken during the past season.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The 1973-74 Girls' Basketball season consisted of nine varsity and five junior varsity games played against some of the top teams in the state. Although the team had a losing record, the efforts of the players illustrated consistent enthusiasm and determination.

Varsity captains were Seniors Lynn Nakamura and Caroline Nycum, and J.V. captains were Junior Karen Colley and Senior Helen Price. Outstanding performances were shown throughout the season by the team's top-scorers, Lynn Nakamura and Sophomores Cathy Zarro and Lisa Bonynge. The girls are looking forward to improving their record next year.

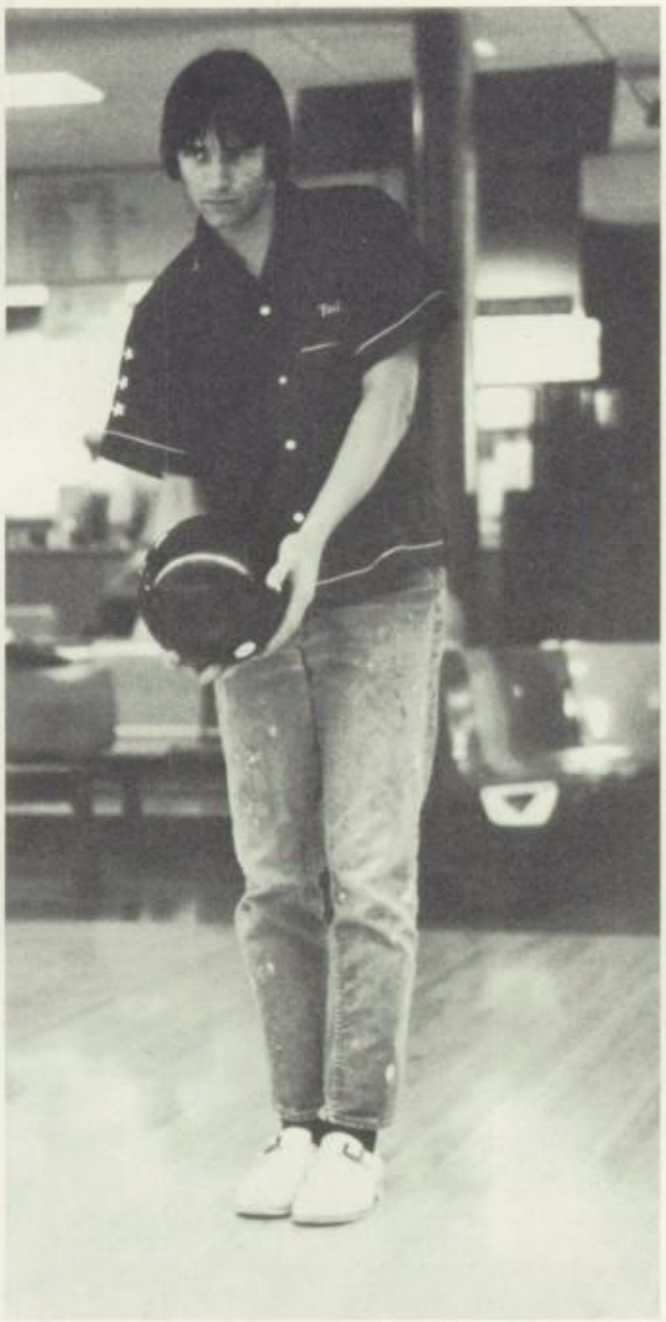
BOWLING— SUBURBAN CONFERENCE CHAMPS



The Summit Keglers, captained by Nick Ceto and Paul Macheska, lead the Suburban Conference League in both team and individual records. The team, winning the Conference title for the second season, took League high game, series and average honors. Individual records were attained by Paul Macheska who rolled Conference High Series and average while sharing the high game title with Joe Rotondi. Mike Goff rolled the Conference second high game.

Keen competition on both Varsity and JV levels have helped give Summit an excellent season.

Clarence— If you ever stop laughing or makeing faces at people I will know you are dead. The one time I heard you really crack up was comming home from Highland Park. If I didn't meet you thru DD I would have by Tim.

keep the school together b/w I hope there aren't any people left who express themselves as openly as some people we know. I also want you and DD to keep it cool (and sometimes not). Best of Luck finding a' school. Love Tim Rachel

TO SIR WITH LOVE

Those school girl days of telling tales and biting nails are gone.
But in my mind
I know they will still live on and on.
But how do you thank someone who has taken you from crayons to perfume?
It isn't easy but I'll try.
If you wanted the sky
I would write across the sky in letters that would soar a thousand feet high
to sir with love.

The time has come for closing books
and long lost looks must end
and as I leave
I know that I am leaving my best friend
a friend who taught me right from wrong
and weak from strong.
That's a lot to learn.
What, what can I give to you in return?
If you wanted the moon
I would try to make the stars
but I would rather you let me give my heart
To Sir With Love.

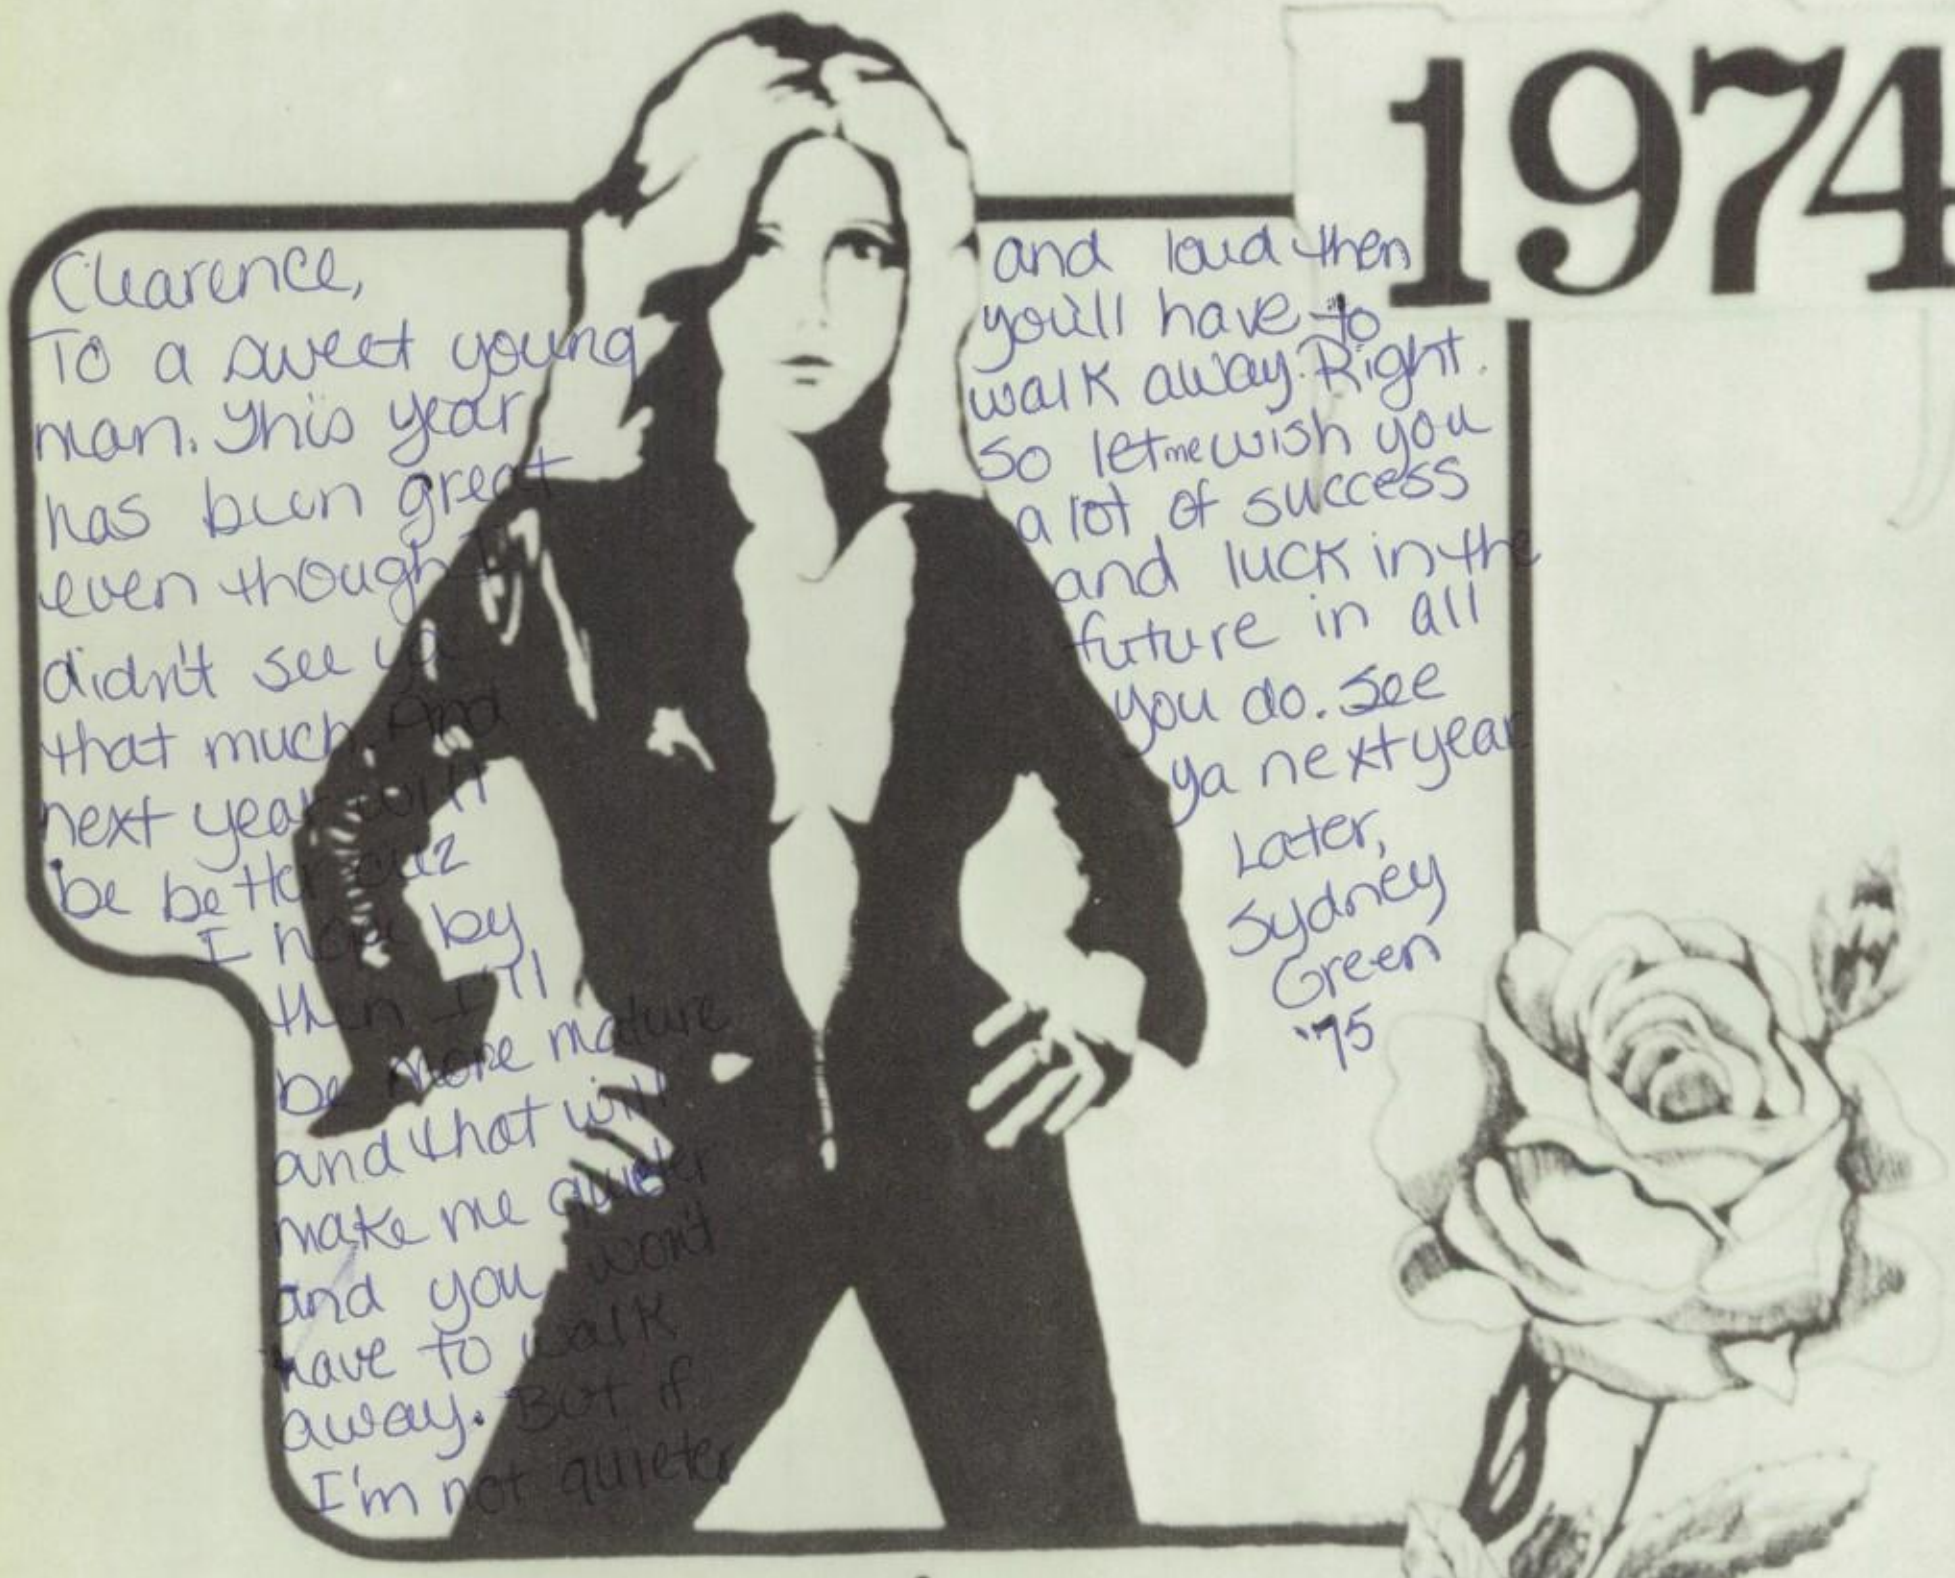
Clarence ~

Everyone has really changed since the old Roosevelt school days - although we haven't been really close - I still consider you a true friend.

Have a fun summer, take care and I'll see ya next year. Much Love,

Donna

1974



Clarence,
To a sweet young man. This year has been great even though I didn't see you that much. And next year will be better cuz I hope by then I'll be more mature and that will make me quieter and you won't have to walk away. But if I'm not quieter and loud then you'll have to walk away. Right. So let me wish you a lot of success and luck in the future in all you do. See ya next year

AGE

"Youth is just a visitor,
It only stays awhile,
And it never comes back again,
So treat it with a smile.

Years fall on you like a sudden storm,
Never to be regained,
But if you take each one as it comes,
You'll see the sun again."

Clarence,

Its been a great year with you in history. I am really glad that we know each other, because you are a great guy to know! Have fun and successall through youryears

PLEASE USE FRONT DOORS

The sky is the door — not the limit — to the impossible. We never know what may be behind that door for the future is full of elusive whims. Some people will get only as far as the keyhole; it is there that their memories block the way so that no key will fit to open the door of the future. The past very often does not let go, and we are prisoners of useless dreams. Find your key, turn past the rust of old memories and open the door of your tomorrow. There's a rainbow waiting for you behind that door, and although there may be a puddle instead of a pot of gold at the end, a puddle is the mirror of the sky. Today is your tomorrow . . .

Dear Clarence:

Dear Clarence -

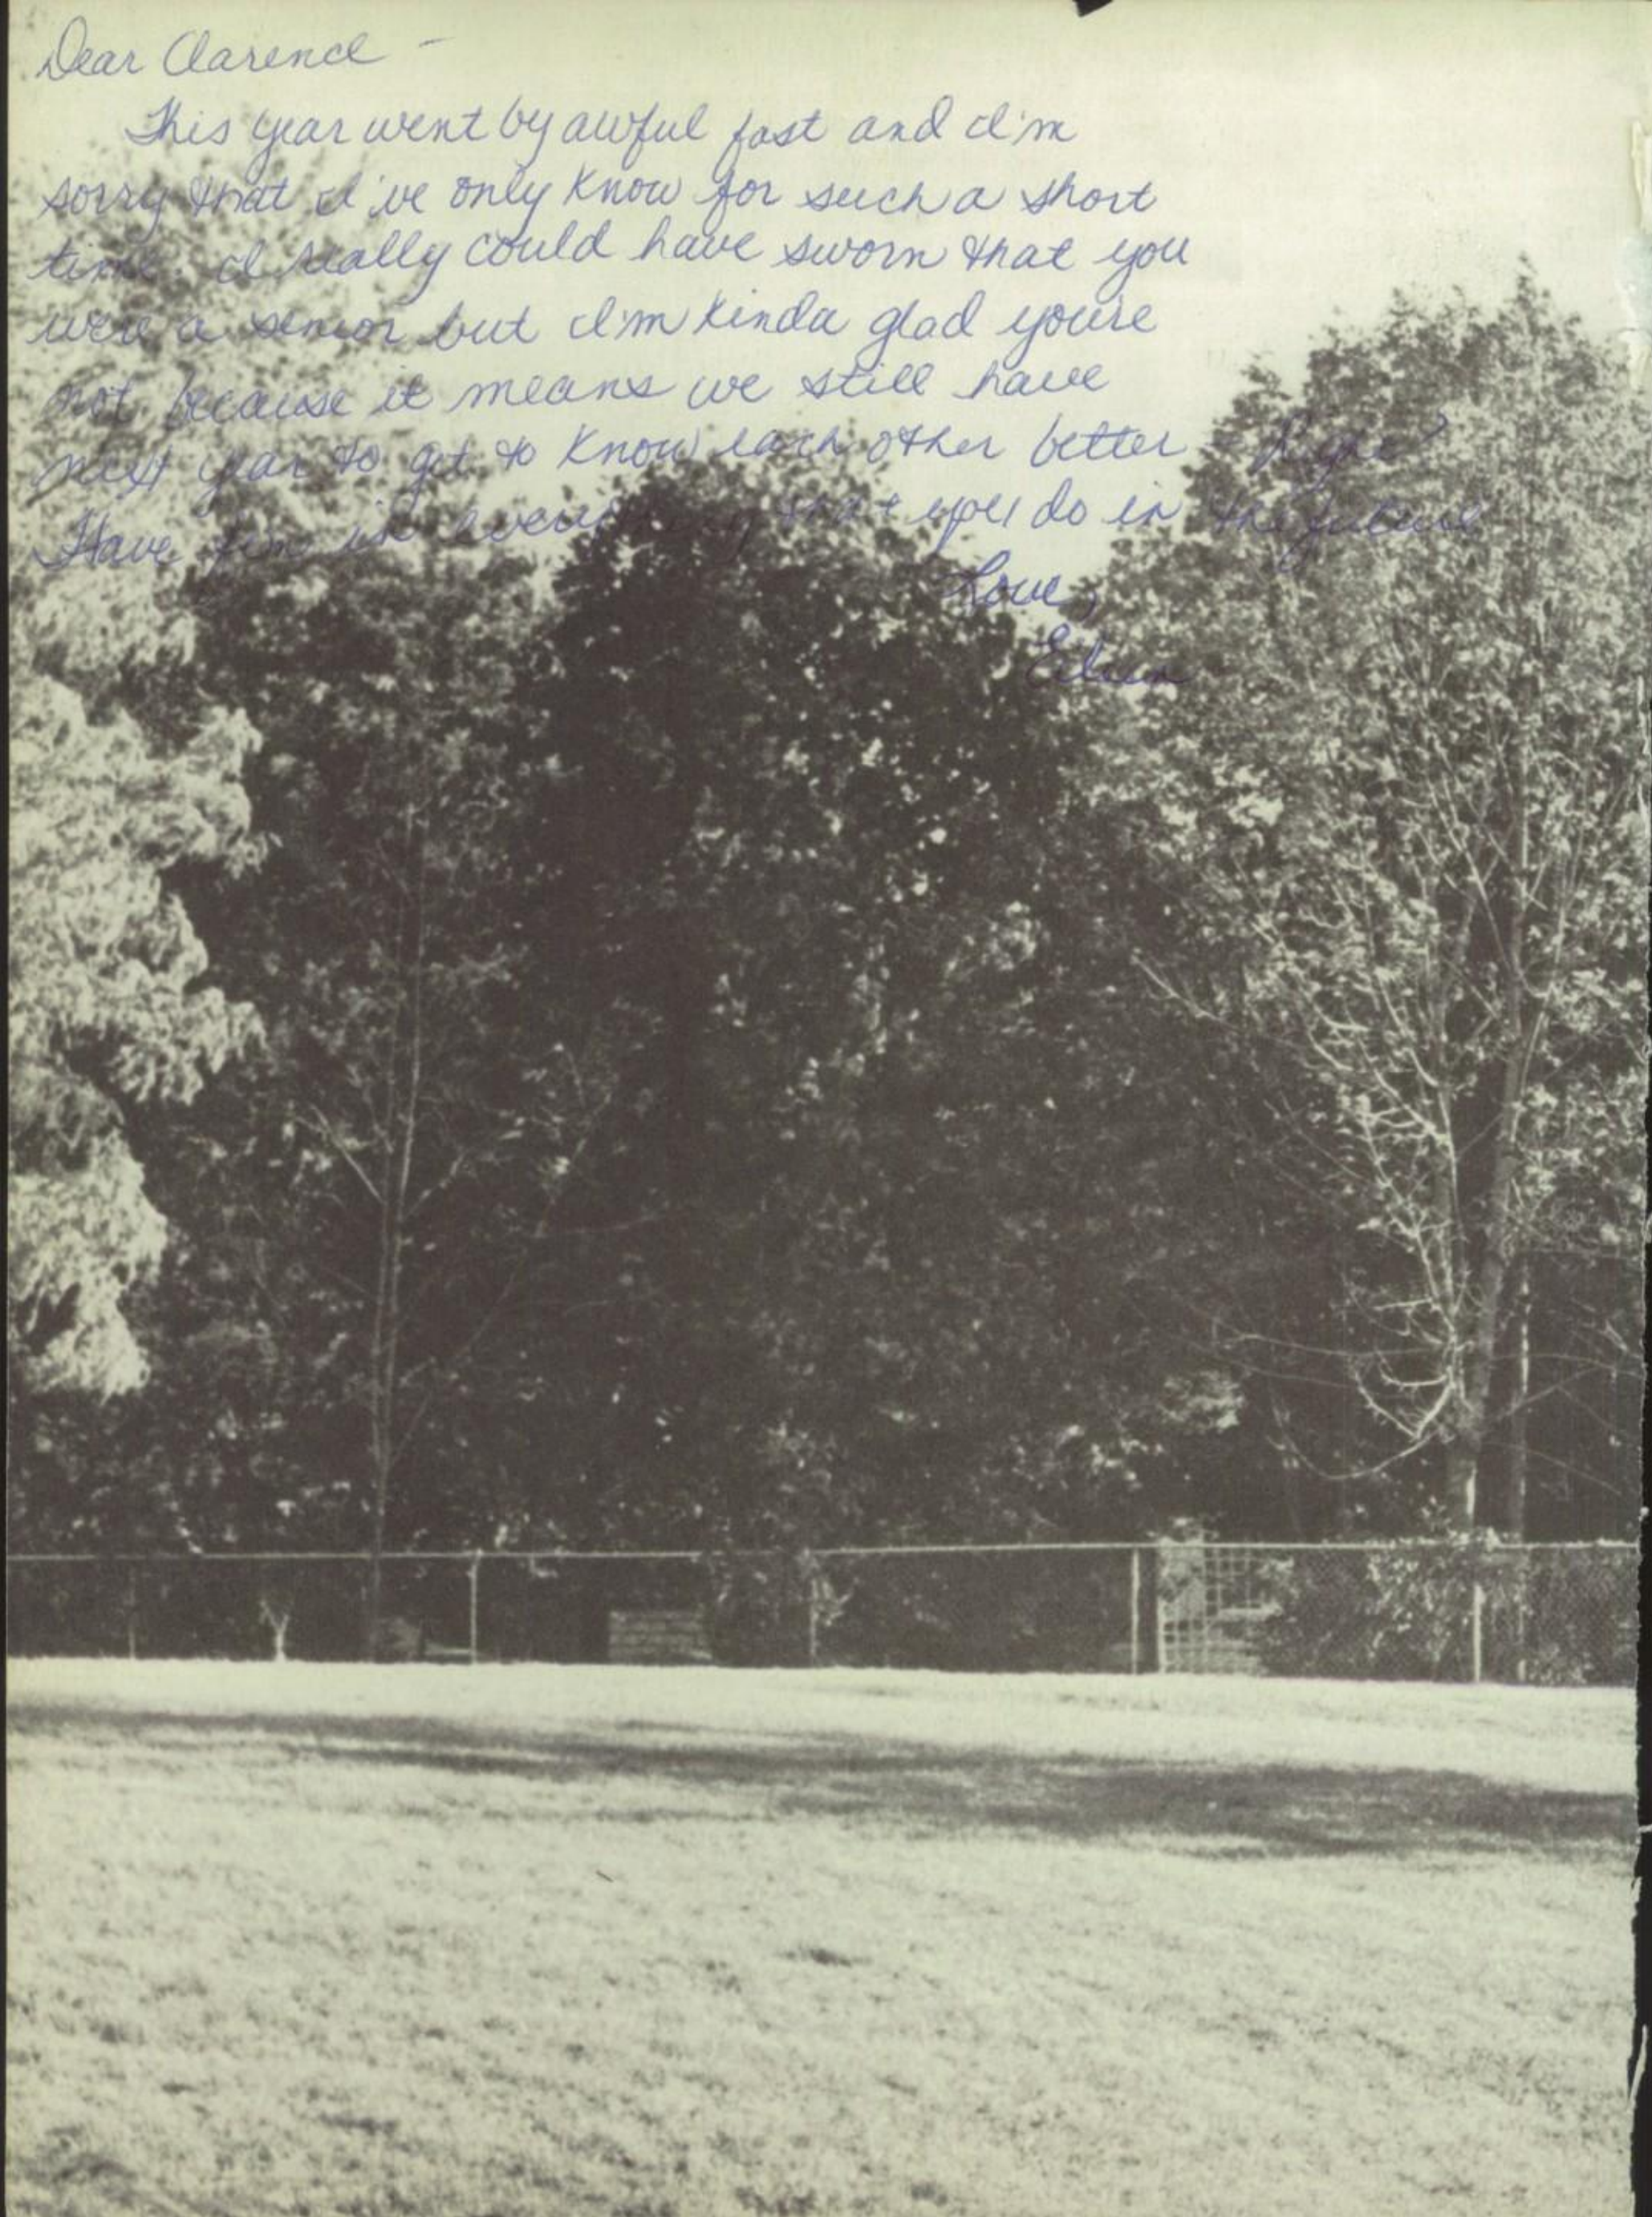
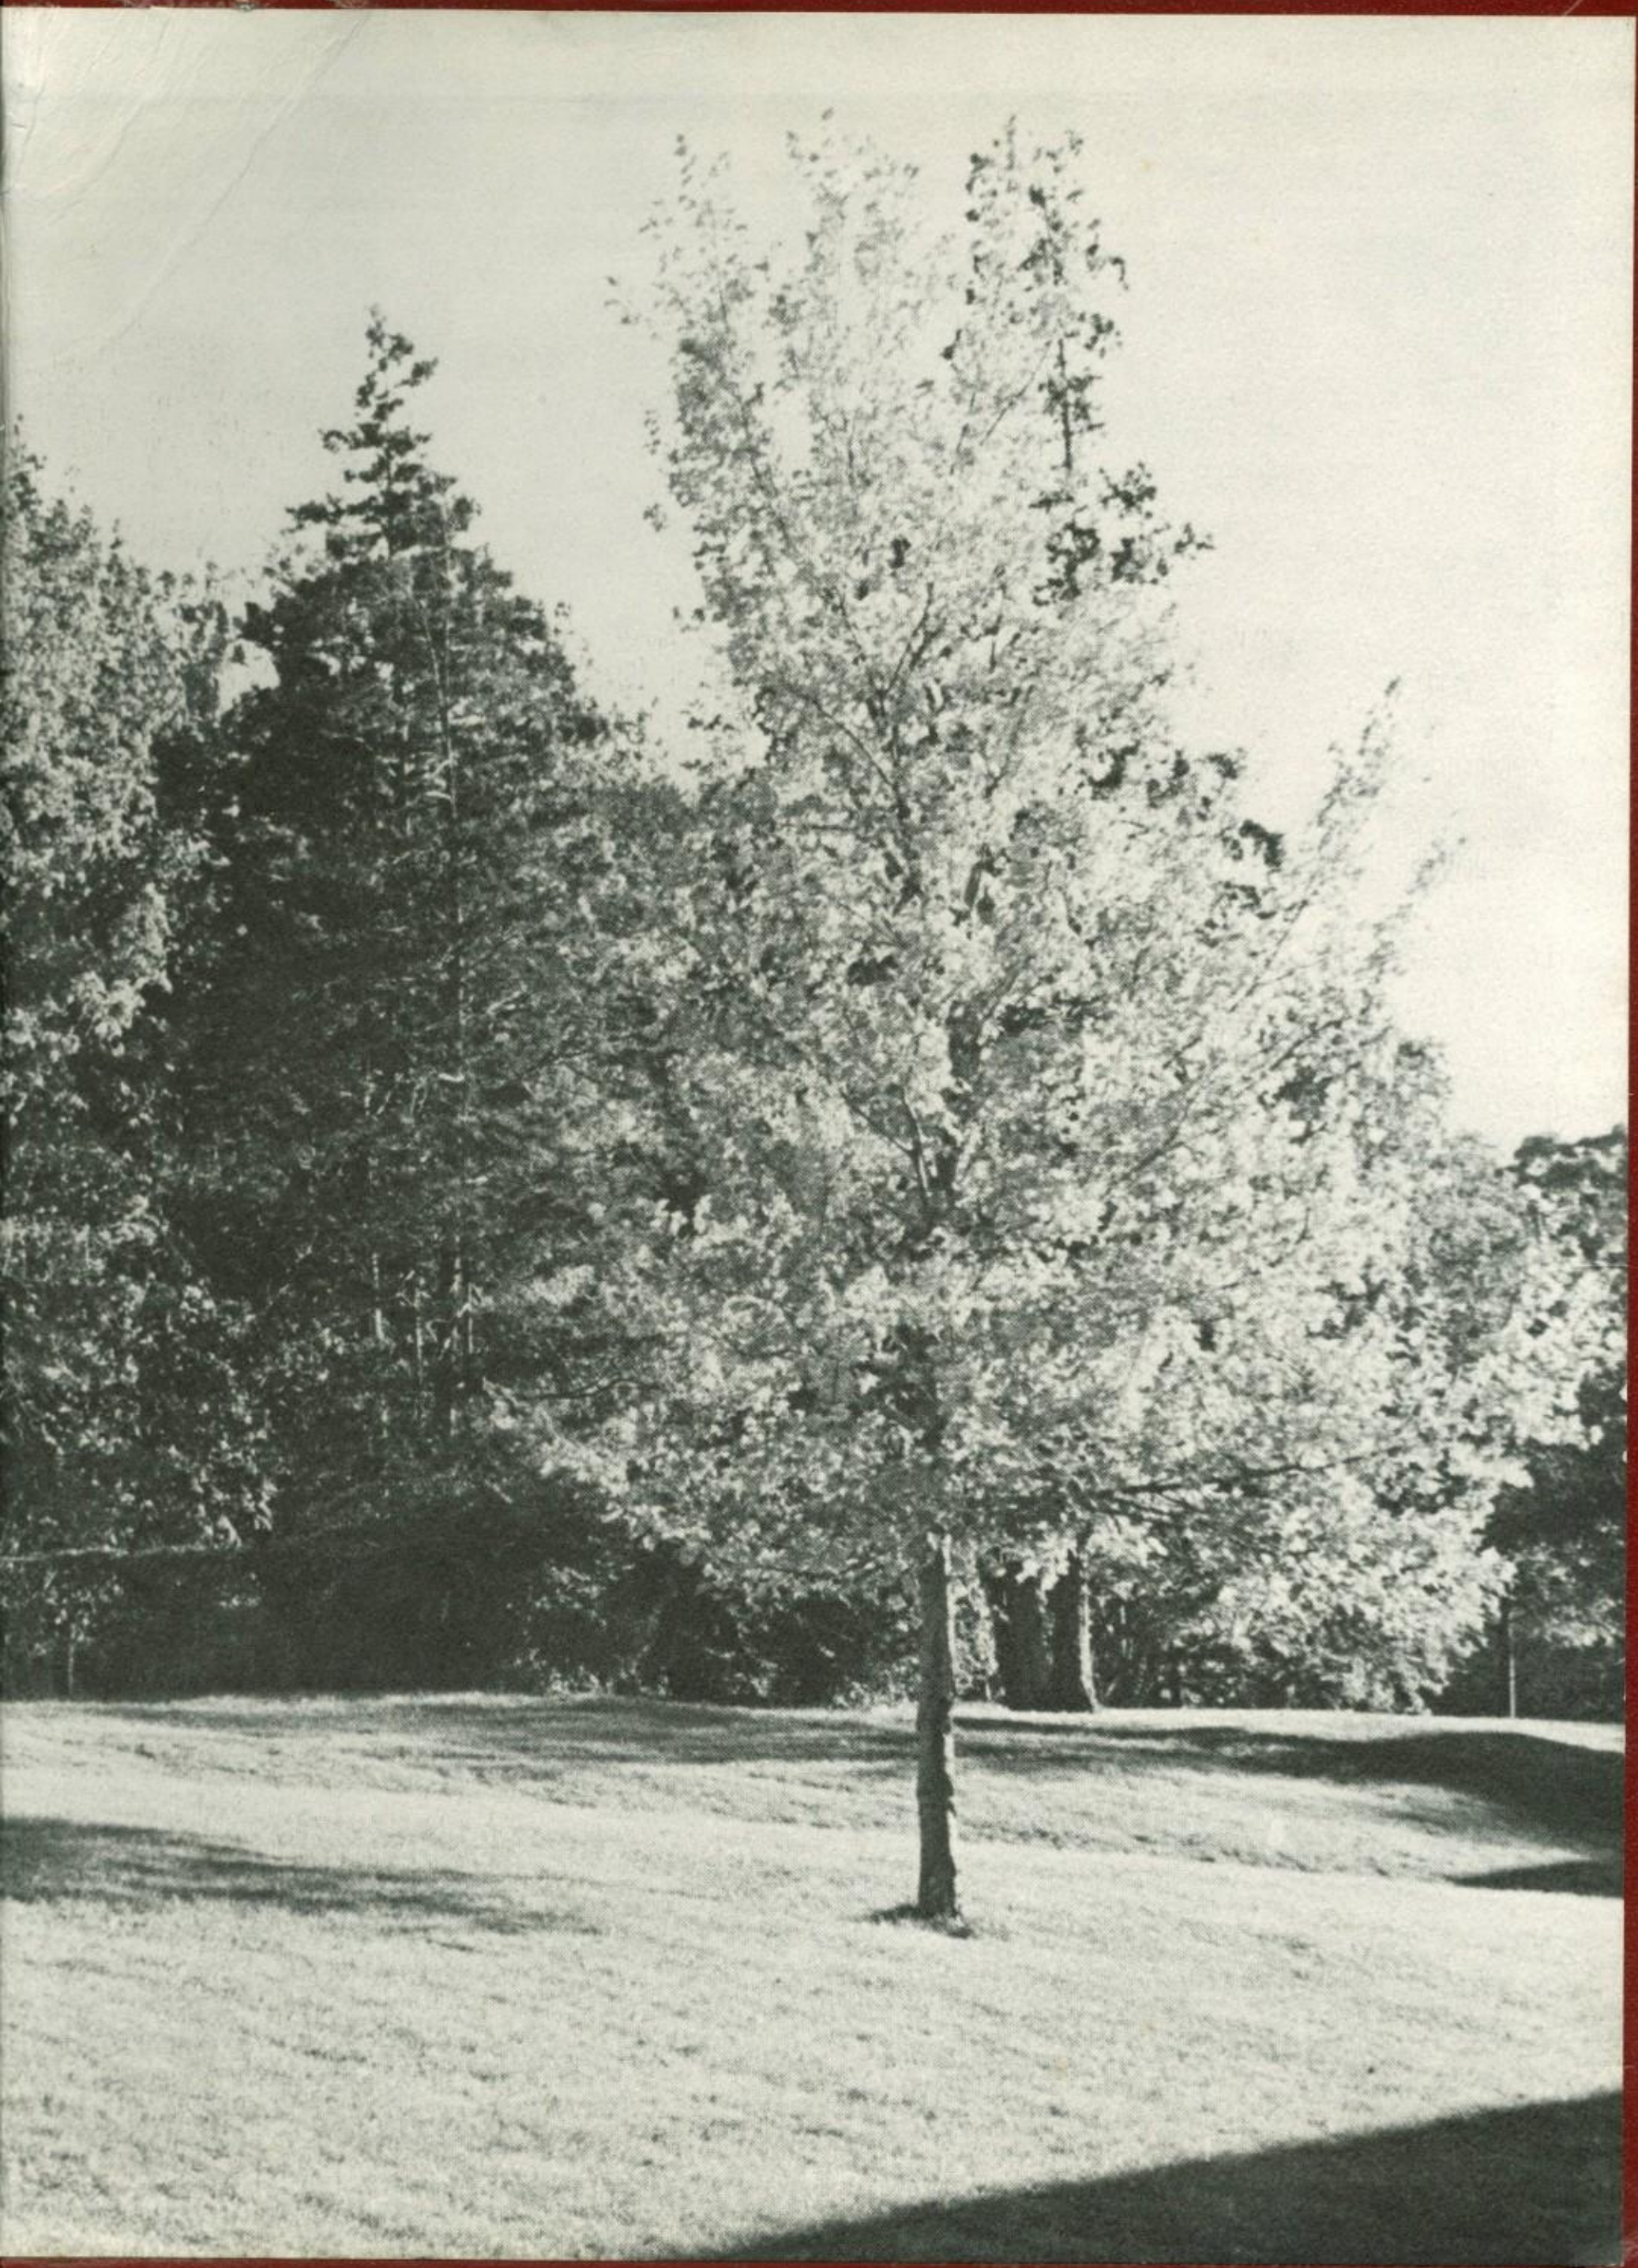
This year went by awful fast and I'm sorry that I've only known for such a short time. I really could have sworn that you were a senior but I'm kinda glad you're not because it means we still have next year to get to know each other better. Hope you have a great summer and what you do in the future.




Love,
Ellen
